DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group 1 for claims 1 and 2 in the reply filed on 12/30/04 is acknowledged.
2. Claims 3-4 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected Invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 12/30/04.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1-2 objected to because of the following informalities: It appears on line 3 of claim 1 that "linear" has been misspelled. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 1-2 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Yamada '285 in view of Watanabe '225.

Regarding claims 1 and 2 Yamada shows a device similar to that of the elected embodiment, as easily seen in the drawings, but lacks the specifics of the characteristics of the spring.

Springs with linear and non-linear properties are notoriously well known in the art. The examiner take official notice that this is the case. Nevertheless the reference to Watanabe has been cited to provide a general teaching of this idea.

It would have been obvious to the ordinary skilled worker in the art to have substituted a spring having linear and non-linear properties for the spring of Yamada simply dependent upon the damping characteristics desired from the absorber. The same rational may be used for setting the claimed dimensional relationship of the spring case 31 to that of the spring—and possibly to prevent unwanted noise due to contact of the spring with the case.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
